"A Dollar or More"

"A dollar or more from every one who has ever attended Pacific." Such is this year's slogan of the Alumni Association.

"Scholarships for Entering Undergraduates" is the object. Students who could not go to college without $100 a semester from this source can enroll as rapidly as the Scholarship Fund grows.

The Fund is a free-will offering from the Alumni to Pacific. We who have enjoyed the privileges of the College can thus afford similar opportunities to others.

We can all be "Dollar-a-year-Men" and increase the students and alumni of Pacific. Our pro-rata share is small but the aggregate results will be large. Every former student who hears of the plan can help. Every one can send a dollar. Many can send more. Now's the time to send yours to the Secretary.

SOUTH ENTRANCE TO ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

Home Coming Home

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1932

Football fans, Pacific boosters, fair, wise, and others . . . come, one and all to Pacific's ninth annual Homecoming, October 29! Your friends will be glad to greet you. The younger grads will be glad to meet you. You will enjoy the luncheon, the game, the play and everything connected with the place there is no other quite like.

The luncheon is scheduled for 11:30 this year so that all may reach the stadium early. The program will be short and appropriate.

THE GAME

The Homecoming Game this year certainly looks like Pacific's. A contest between the Pacific "Tigers" and the Fresno "Bull-dogs" is always worth seeing, but this one should be especially good for the eyes of the Alumni. The team will undoubtedly do credit to the thorough coaching of "Swede" Righter and his assistant, "Cunny" Cunningham.

Pacific beat the California Aggies 30 to 0, October 14, and the Aggies beat Fresno State 3 to 0 earlier this month. Alumni who majored in "Math" are figuring the score for October 29 and the rest of us are eager to "come and see" Pacific conquer.

THE PLAY

The Little Theatre is reviving an old favorite. "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will delight former students of Pacific as well as the townspeople of Stockton.

DeMarcus Brown '23 announces that he has an unusually fine cast. That's enough to cause alumni to cast aside all else and come back to the campus, October 29.

The Pacific Tigers

RALPH FRANCIS
Graduate Mgr.

Coach "Swede" Righter's Pacific Tigers opened their 1932 football season with a 20-0 victory over the Modesto Junior College. They bowed to the American Legion Big Shots of Stockton 7-6 and lost their first conference game to San Jose in a severe upset.

"Doped" as underdogs, they came back fighting and took a 30-0 win from the Cal Aggies in one of the most spectacular contests in Pacific football history. This gives them an outside chance for the Far Western Conference title with only Fresno and Chico to meet.

SANTA CLARA, NOVEMBER 5

Santa Clara is on the Pacific schedule this year for the first time since 1928. The game will be played in Kezar Stadium, San Francisco, November 5, and is creating no little amount of interest in Pacific circles. For those who like to compare figures, here are some scores of the season to consider: University of California 20, Cal Aggies 6; Santa Clara 12, University of California 0; Pacific 30, Cal Aggies 0.

The 1932 Bengals are potentially the greatest aggregation ever assembled under the Orange and the Black. In their game with the Fresno Bulldogs at Homecoming, they will be out to show their backers that they are "a scrapping bunch of Tigers," and deserve the distinction of being called "the greatest Bengal eleven ever."

SOME FIGHTING BENGALS

Among the outstanding players of the team are:

ELTON HAMILTON, one of the best kickers on the coast; serving his last year on the Varsity; the mainstay of the Tiger attack; All-Conference halfback last year.

GERALD "BIFF" STROBRIDGE, All-Conference fullback last year; the most consistent Bengal gridder on the squad; the workhorse of Righter's attack; a demon on defense.

TOM WILSON, outstanding passer; shoots a hard and fast ball; as accurate as a championship marksman.

BUDDY GOOLD, the most consistent blocker on the team; calls the signals; the most self-effacing man on the squad.

GEORGE TRUCKELL, a big fellow who doesn't know the meaning of fear.

BOB WICKER, a twisting, swerving halfback who travels under the name of the Antioch Antelope.

CARL BROWN, a 200-pound tackle from San Francisco, playing his second year on the Tiger team.

CHRIS KJELDSSEN, regular running guard for two seasons; one of the hardest working men on the team and the quickest.

KEN STOCKING, All-Conference tackle last year; a veteran tackle of Pacific's team, having held the position for four years.

DON SEEGER, a tower of strength in the line, shifted from tackle to guard, where he is showing up fine this season.

WILFRED CARPENTER, remembered by Pacific alumni who saw him play in 1929; playing a fine game at end.

GEORGE CORSON, brother of Coach Jim Corson, playing center for his third year; one of the outstanding scrappers in the Tiger forward wall.

The Fresno Bulldogs

ART SAFSTROM
Graduate Manager

Coach Stan Borleske's Fresno State College Bulldogs opened their 1932 football season with an impressive victory over the powerful San Diego Marines. They lost their next game to the West Coast Army 7-6, and dropped their first conference game of the year a week later to the California Aggies, 3-0. Despite their defeat at the hands of the Aggies, the Bulldogs are not yet out of the Far Western Conference race, and are expected to be well up at the top by the end of the season.

Coach Borleske is coaching at State for his fourth year. In 1930 he produced the conference championship eleven. He was a member of Walter Camp's all-Western team in 1916. Flint Hanner, line coach, is a former Stanford athlete, and former world's champion javelin thrower on U. S. Olympic team.

The Bulldogs play their first intersectional football game at Topeka, Kansas, on Armistice Day against Washburn College. En route to the east they stop at Flagstaff, Arizona, for an engagement with Arizona State College. In the Far Western Conference they have yet to meet San Jose State, Pacific, and the University of Nevada. Last year the Bulldogs failed to repeat their championship victory of 1930, but succeeded in throwing the conference into a four way tie.

SOME GROWLING BULLDOGS

The Outstanding players on the State team are as follows:

CAPTAIN WALT GLENN, a veteran gridder; the lightest man on the team, but a heady field general and a dangerous left-handed passer.

JACK HORNER, playing his third year for State at fullback; the power house of the Fresno team, and hits the line hard. Jack always wears a smile.

JIGGS PAYNE, a new man at Fresno; the fastest man in the Fresno backfield. The Bulldogs depend a great deal on him to carry the ball around end and through the line.

Backfield—GLENN, HORNER, MATHIESEN, PAYNE.

Line—SCHLEIBAUM, LEWIS, SHIMMIN, NISWANDER, FEICHTMEIR, KAUFMAN, WICKSTROM.

SIM MATHIESEN, considered one of the best punters on the Pacific Coast. His kicks sail over 60 yards at times and they fly high; also a fast passer and packs the ball considerably.

MARTY KAUFMAN, a veteran tackle on Fresno's team. One of the best in the Conference last year and expected to show up well this season.

TED FEICHTMEIR, All-Conference guard last year. Short, but heavy, and fast. Has a hand in every play. His fourth season with the Bulldogs.

HORACE NISWANDER, a heavy but fast lineman. Best center at State for some time. Also does the place kicking and makes kickoff.

FRANK SCHLEIBAUM, a new man at Fresno. Good end and dependable pass receiver. Improving rapidly and looks like he may make the All-Conference eleven.

WINSLOW WICKSTROM, another candidate for All-Conference end. Great defensive player and can catch passes. His first year at Fresno and going over big.

HOMER SHIMMIN, a powerful lineman and one of the best defensive players ever on a Fresno lineup.

JOE LEWIS, another veteran tackle, playing his last year at State and looks like sure All-Conference man.

Off and On the Campus

COACH RIGHTER RESIGNS

Coach C. E. Righter announced his retirement as head football coach at Pacific October 15, following one of the most spectacular victories in Pacific football history. The Tigers had won from the California Aggies, 30-0, the night before.

The announcement came unexpectedly from the Coach. Lack of interest in Pacific athletics by Stockton people; lack of respect shown to Pacific teams in their home city; and loss of support from the American Legion are among the reasons given by the Coach for retiring. He will finish this football season and also that of basketball and tennis.

SENIOR COAST MENTOR

Righter came to Pacific in 1921, and ranks the senior among Pacific Coast mentors. He was a basketball and football star in Stanford, as well as a member of the United States Olympic game champion rugby team in 1920. He built Pacific athletics from obscurity to the point of dominance in the Far Western Conference.

A successor will not be named for a time. Direct succession cannot be used, since Harold Cunningham '25, line coach since 1928, has also announced that he is leaving Pacific at the end of this term.

PACIFIC ATHLETE IS KILLED

Lee Fulgham '35, hero of last year's Homecoming game, was killed in an automobile accident at Pismo Beach July 4, 1932.

It was Fulgham who caught the pass that scored the first touchdown against the Aggies. It was he who raced down the field in the last minute of the game to catch a pass and placed the ball over the line to give the Tigers a 20-20 tie with the Aggies.

He was a plucky fellow and is remembered by his teammates for his fighting spirit and gentlemanly conduct on the field.

ALUMNI RECEIVE MASTER'S DEGREES

J. Russell Bodley '23, assistant professor of theory at Pacific, and Hoyle Carpenter '31 were among the 111 graduates of the Eastman School of Music at the University of Rochester in New York last June. Both received the degrees Master of Music. Bodley has resumed his classes at Pacific, and Carpenter has opened a piano studio at his home in Stockton.

CHANGES ON THE FACULTY

Dr. Wilson E. Wilmarth, professor of French and Spanish, and Dr. O. L. Williams, professor of Biologic Sciences, are new members on the Pacific Faculty this year. Dr. Wilmarth holds degrees from Wesleyan College in Connecticut and the University of Wisconsin and has studied at the Middlebury French School and the Sorbonne University. He fills the position left vacant by the resignations of Violette Costabel '22 and John King Hubbard, M. A. '27.

Dr. Williams received his B. A. and M. A. degrees from Nebraska State University and his Ph.D. from the University of California. He replaces Dr. Louis S. Kroeck '95, who retired.

Dr. Gertrude Sibley, associate professor of English, will teach only part-time this year since she has been appointed to succeed Lillian Berthenier, who resigned as assistant dean of women and hostess of Women's Hall.

EXCHANGE STUDENT FROM HAWAII

Kim On Chong, who comes to Pacific this year as an exchange student from the University of Hawaii, is registered as a junior. Mr. Chong was active in debate and Y. M. C. A. work at Hawaii. He likes the spirit of Pacific and is confident that it will be an enjoyable and profitable year for him.

Pacific is being represented at Hawaii by Glen Young, a sophomore.

PACIFIC REUNION IN FORTUNA

A Pacific reunion honoring Mrs. E. L. Harker (Esther Hornaday '25) was held at the home of Mrs. Paul Jasper (Mary Hornaday '18) in Fortuna, October 4. Mrs. Harker has been spending several months in California and will return to her home in Wailuku in Hawaii next month.

Those who gathered to greet Mrs. Harker were: Dorothy Dale, Lorene Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Epps (Ethel Zane), Rev. and Mrs. Fred Busher, Mr. and Mrs. Hunter (Florence Leak), Mr. and Mrs. Roland Glines (Constance McKee) and Ross B. Ring.

PACIFIC CLUB

The Pacific Club, new campus organization for students not affiliated with sororities or fraternities, is holding meetings regularly and is planning a fine program of activities for the year. It will hold a reception for non-affiliated alumni who return to the campus for Homecoming.

Alumni Scholarship Fund

ROBERT BURNS '31
First contributor to Scholarship Fund.

The first hundred years are said to be the hardest, but the first hundred dollars was not so difficult to raise for the Alumni Scholarship Fund. The Executive Committee of the Alumni Association voted at the September meeting to inaugurate a new plan to encourage entering undergraduate students, and a copy of the resolution was sent to all former students and graduates of Pacific and Napa College.

The response is most gratifying. Subscriptions began to arrive by return mail, and have continued to reach the secretary's desk each day. Those who have already subscribed are appealing to their friends to "go and do likewise." The plan is so democratic that all can have a part in establishing the new Fund. The slogan is "One Dollar or more from every one who has ever attended Pacific."

ALL TO AID

Alumni who have been wondering how best they could "do something for the College" are welcoming this opportunity. It is a way whereby they can have a part in increasing the enrollment and strengthening the finances of the College at the same time. Many high school graduates who could not otherwise afford to enter Pacific next February will feel grateful to alumni who enable them to pay their tuition.

A dollar or more sent in promptly by each former student will build a splendid Alumni Fund for Scholarships. The amount thus raised will be announced at the Homecoming luncheon, Saturday, October 29. Each reader of the Review can now help materially to increase the number of scholarships which will be available next semester.
